

Felicia N. Grant-Mardehow

ATLANTA, GA

Felicia N. Grant-Mardehow is an associate attorney in the firm's Atlanta office. She concentrates her practice in worker's compensation and general liability defense matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Grant-Mardehow gained valuable experience doing financial planning and estate planning for a Fortune 500 Company. During that time, she also served as VP of Programs for Power Suit Project and Community Service Co-Chair for Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys. Ms. Grant-Mardehow later became a prosecutor for Gwinnett County, representing the State on misdemeanor cases such as DUI, battery, and theft.

She received her B.S. in English Education, cum laude, from Kennesaw State University in 2008 and her J.D. from Mercer University School of Law in 2013. Ms. Grant- Mardehow was admitted to practice law in Georgia in 2014.

Outside of the office, Ms. Grant-Mardehow enjoys listening to music, enhancing her yoga practice, and spending time with family.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Workers' Compensation
- General & Premises Liability

EDUCATION

Kennesaw State University (B.S., cum laude, 2008)

Mercer University School of Law (J.D., 2013)

✉ FGrantmardehow@c-wlaw.com

📞 (470) 740-4100