Christopher A. Diaz

MT. LAUREL, NJ

Christopher A. Diaz is a partner in the firm's Mt. Laurel office. He focuses his practice on representing employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in all aspects of workers' compensation matters.

Mr. Diaz is an experienced trial attorney and has devoted his practice to representing clients in workers' compensation defense for over 25 years. He regularly conducts seminars and presentations for clients and claims representatives. His brief in the reported Appellate Division case of Feltman vs. Transistor Devices helped guide the Court with respect to workplace heart attack claims.

Mr. Diaz is admitted to practice in New Jersey and is a member of the American, New Jersey and Puerto Rican Bar Associations.

He received his B.A. from Seton Hall University in 1995 and his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law in 1998. While in law school, he served as Managing Business Editor of Rutgers Race and the Law Review.

In his spare time, Mr. Diaz enjoys reading, spending time with his family, visiting his daughter at her college in Boston, and playing with his shih-tzu, Lola.
